

Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission Title VI Complaint Procedure Revised April 2010

Purpose:

The DVRPC Title VI Complaint Procedure is written to specify the process employed by DVRPC to investigate complaints, while ensuring due process for Complainants and respondents. The process does not preclude DVRPC from attempting to informally resolve complaints.

This procedure applies to all external complaints relating to any program or activity administered by DVRPC and/or its subrecipients, consultants and contractors, filed under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (including its Disadvantaged Business Enterprise and Equal Employment Opportunity components), as well as other related laws that prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, disability, sex, age, low income, nationality or Limited English Proficiency. Additional statutes include, but are not limited to, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

These procedures are part of an administrative process that does not provide for remedies that include punitive damages or compensatory remuneration for the Complainant. Intimidation or retaliation of any kind is prohibited by law.

Process:

An individual, or his or her representative, who believes that he or she has been subject to discrimination or retaliation prohibited by Title VI and other nondiscrimination provisions, has a right to file a complaint. Complaints need to be filed within 180 calendar days of the alleged occurrence, when the alleged discrimination became known to the Complainant, or when there has been a continuing course of conduct, the date on which the conduct was discontinued or the latest instance of the conduct. Complaints may be mailed to:

- Name, address and telephone number of the Complainant.
- Basis of the complaint, (e.g., race, disability, sex).
- A detailed description of the circumstances of the incident that led the Complainant to believe discrimination occurred.
- Names, address and phone numbers of people who may have knowledge of the alleged incident or are perceived as parties in the complained-of incident.
- Date or dates on which the alleged discrimination occurred.
- Other agencies where the complaint was filed.
- As an investigation moves forward, additional information may be required.

If DVRPC receives a complaint, the Commission will acknowledge receipt of the complaint by notifying the Complainant and immediately transmitting the complaint to proper state and federal agency (e.g. Federal Highway Administration, Federal Transit Administration, PennDOT) for investigation and disposition pursuant to that agency's Title VI complaint procedures.
