

IMPROVING AIR QUALITY IN LATINO COMMUNITIES

ROUNDTABLE

The Greater Philadelphia Region has made tremendous strides in improving the region's air quality but statistics indicate that the region's Latino communities still suffer disproportionately from the health impacts of poor air quality.

Please join the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission for a roundtable discussion about ongoing efforts to improve air quality in Greater Philadelphia and how these groups can work more closely with and effectively in Latino communities to reduce health disparities from air pollution.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

- Dr. Marilyn Howarth, University of Pennsylvania Center for Excellence in Environmental Toxicology
- Joseph Minott, Clean Air Council of Philadelphia
- John Keith, American Lung Association
- Patricia Thomas, Congreso de Latinos Unidos
- Tressa Dabney, Congreso de Latinos Unidos

The Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) fully complies with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987, Executive Order 12898 on Environmental Justice, and related nondiscrimination statutes and regulations in all programs and activities. DVRPC's website, www.dvrpc.org, may be translated into multiple languages. Publications and other public documents can be made available in alternative languages and formats, if requested. DVRPC public meetings are always held in ADA-accessible facilities and in transit-accessible locations when possible. Auxiliary services can be provided to individuals who submit a request at least seven days prior to a meeting. Requests made within seven days will be accommodated to the greatest extent possible. Any person who believes they have been aggrieved by an unlawful discriminatory practice by DVRPC under Title VI has a right to file a formal complaint. Any such complaint may be in writing and filed with DVRPC's Title VI Compliance Manager and/or the appropriate state or federal agency within 180 days of the alleged discriminatory occurrence. For more information on DVRPC's Title VI program, or to obtain a Title VI Complaint Form, please call (215) 238-2871 or email public_affairs@dvrpc.org.
