Bordentown City is known for its vibrant and diverse community.

Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia is an initiative of the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) designed to foster the growth of the region’s older communities by promoting what makes each community a wonderful place to live, work, and play.

Explore Bordentown City and the other Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia at ClassicTowns.org
Homes & Community

This progressive, peaceful hamlet offers an affordable and sustainable lifestyle with a charming, walkable downtown, safe, clean streets, and neighbors who take pride in maintaining the personality and character of their community. Bordentown City’s housing stock reflects its rich history. The variety of architecture spanning pre-colonial to post World War II allows residents to enjoy unique, one-of-a-kind living spaces.

Business & Economy

Businesses are attracted to Bordentown City because of its well-established downtown district, its merchant associations, its realistic but progressive master plan, and the growing demographics of the region. Many Bordentown City residents are entrepreneurs, restaurateurs, and professional service providers who work locally.

Residents enjoy the best of everything in Bordentown City.

Activities & Destinations

This one-square mile city is also home to a host of historic attractions, artifacts, and architecture. Bordentown City is alive with historic treasures. Tours are available and led by the Bordentown Historical Society. Bordentown City boasts more than ten different dining experiences and over a dozen unique and specialty shops.