Charm and convenience; Cheltenham has it all.

Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia is an initiative of the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) designed to foster the growth of the region’s older communities by promoting what makes each community a wonderful place to live, work, and play.

Explore Cheltenham and the other Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia at ClassicTowns.org
Homes & Community

Business & Economy
There are opportunities for work in almost every direction, but there are countless opportunities close to home. Within Cheltenham’s confines are several commercial corridors and seven commercial districts. These vibrant, well-maintained, and well-traveled districts provide opportunities for both entrepreneurs and businesses to establish themselves and expand.

Activities & Destinations
There’s so much to do in Cheltenham. You don’t have to go far to find fun. Residents have acres of options when it comes to enjoying the outdoors. Residents keep busy through Cheltenham’s Parks and Recreation Department and its year-round events calendar offering everything from tennis and arts in the spring to winter festivals and classes for fitness and fun.

One of Philadelphia’s original inner-ring suburbs, Cheltenham is a safe and walkable community.

There are more than 350 acres of township-owned parks for residents to enjoy the outdoors.