Jenkintown is the hub of it all.

Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia is an initiative of the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) designed to foster the growth of the region’s older communities by promoting what makes each community a wonderful place to live, work, and play.

Homes & Community
The beautiful, tree-lined streets are just one of the many reasons to live in Jenkintown. More than half of the houses in the town were built before 1939, giving the neighborhoods their classic charm. The many nearby parks and playgrounds create ideal surroundings for families and fans of the outdoors. With its historic homes, Jenkintown has something to offer all.

Business & Economy
Jenkintown’s municipal government is committed to fostering a business-friendly environment. Old York Road is a popular thoroughfare and attracts new business to the town with a mix of eclectic shops. The Jenkintown Community Alliance promotes and supports the businesses of the community.

Activities & Destinations
The parks of the Jenkintown area provide countless opportunities for outdoor activities such as a community built playground, the Curtis Park Arboretum, and Jenkintown Square, which features a bandstand, plaza, and green space. Residents can enjoy wildlife at George Perley Bird Sanctuary, an eight-acre protected sanctuary.
