Kennett Square is quintessentially classic.

Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia is an initiative of the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) designed to foster the growth of the region’s older communities by promoting what makes each community a wonderful place to live, work, and play.

Homes & Community
Located in Chester County and surrounded by the beautiful Brandywine Valley, Kennett Square offers something for families, singles, and seniors. Historic homes, a bustling downtown with upscale boutiques, retailers, and restaurants, ample amenities, and exceptional public and private schools, can all be found within its borders.

Business & Economy
A diverse mix of architects, accountants, lawyers, doctors, and other professionals fill its downtown and attract visitors to support its landmark retailers and restaurants. Agriculture factors prominently in Kennett Square’s economy. Residents enjoy opportunities in diverse industries and at the many museums and attractions that dot its countryside.

Activities & Destinations
Fun can always be found in downtown Kennett Square. Whether it’s eating meals at Half Moon Saloon, enjoying La Michoacana’s renowned ice cream, strolling the windows on State Street, or taking in a performance by the Kennett Square Symphony, residents have many ways to keep busy in Kennett Square.

Kennett Square is the “Mushroom Capital of the World,” a fact it celebrates every September with a Mushroom Festival.
