Oxford is an outstanding community with so much to offer.

Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia is an initiative of the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) designed to foster the growth of the region’s older communities by promoting what makes each community a wonderful place to live, work, and play.

Explore Oxford and the other Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia at ClassicTowns.org
Homes & Community
With excellent schools, amenities that serve all ages, affordable housing options, and countless community events, Oxford is an outstanding community to call home. This safe, pedestrian-friendly, and family-oriented town offers something for everyone. In its residential districts, you’ll find diverse architecture that celebrates the community’s history.

Business & Economy
Oxford’s location between Baltimore and Philadelphia has always been a boon for its businesses and economy. At home, though, there’s a healthy mix of merchants and professional services providers. Everyone from lawyers and accountants through artisans and farmers plays a pivotal role in Oxford’s economic vitality. Oxford’s businesses fulfill their economic potential.

Activities & Destinations
There are so many opportunities to find fun and enrichment in Oxford. For those eager to enjoy the great outdoors, Oxford offers great fishing, challenging hiking, and numerous running and biking trails. Head out into the breathtaking country and witness more than 100 covered bridges, then back into town for a walking tour of Oxford’s historic town center.

Oxford is a pedestrian-friendly community with a rich history and a promising future for its families and businesses.