One of Pennsylvania’s best kept secrets!

Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia is an initiative of the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) designed to foster the growth of the region’s older communities by promoting what makes each community a wonderful place to live, work, and play.

Explore Quakertown and the other Classic Towns of Greater Philadelphia at ClassicTowns.org

Quakertown Pennsylvania
Homes & Community
The Quakertown Historic District is home to 2,400 residences all located within one square mile. The town hosts a strong Victorian and early 20th century architectural style. Quakertown is home to a tight knit community, complete with its own farmer’s market, affordable housing, good schools, low taxes, borough owned utilities, an in-town community hospital.

Business & Economy
Quakertown is an attractive town for businesses as it hosts a skilled workforce, affordable real estate, tax abatement programs and incentives, as well as a number of business organizations and resources including Quakertown Alive and the Upper Bucks Chamber of Commerce as well as the Upper Bucks Visitor Center.

Activities & Destinations
Pedestrian friendly and surrounded by nature, Quakertown hosts a number of events and festivals throughout the year. People of all ages gather to relax beneath the trees and share picnics. A child favorite here is Panther Park Playground, complete with fortress and tire swings. Main Street Park provides basketball courts, a softball field, and a skate park.