SURVEY PURPOSE

DVRPC is currently working with the City of Camden to develop a Health Element that will be adopted as part of the city's master plan. This survey will help us understand which actions you think the city and its partners should pursue to promote community well-being. The survey has a section for each of the Camden Health Element's seven goals listed below and should take between 10 and 20 minutes, depending on how many sections you chose to complete. We appreciate your participation in the survey and support of the Camden Health Element!

GOALS

PLAN FORMAT

The Health Element will have seven goals as noted above. Each goal will have four to five strategies describing how we plan to achieve that goal. Additionally, each strategy will have a range of actions detailing specific policies and programs that can be implemented to fulfill the strategy. Since that could lead to many different actions, we want your help understanding what is most important to you!
